The University's Non-Discrimination Act Policy

The University does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, marital status, military status (which includes active duty service members, reserve service members, and dependents), national or ethnic origin, political affiliation, pregnancy (including childbirth and related conditions), race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, and family medical or genetic information, in its programs and activities as required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Governor's Executive Order Number One (2018), and other applicable statutes and University policies. The University prohibits sexual and gender-based harassment, including sexual assault, and other forms of interpersonal violence. Individuals, including University students and employees, and participants in university programs or activities, may be entitled to reasonable accommodations or modifications for a disability. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the Americans with Disabilities Act, Rehabilitation Act, and related statutes and regulations: ADA Coordinator (include the ADA Coordinator's contact information). A Deputy ADA Coordinator has also been designated to assist the ADA Coordinator: (include contact information for Deputy ADA Coordinator). The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Associate Vice President, Office for Equal Opportunity and Civil Rights, (include the contact information). The following person has been designated to serve as the overall coordinator for purposes of Title IX compliance: Assistant Vice President & Title IX Coordinator, (include the contact information). A Deputy Title IX Coordinator has also been designated to assist the Title IX Coordinator: (include contact information). Complaints of discrimination, harassment and other forms of interpersonal violence, and retaliation may be submitted to the Office for Equal Opportunity and Civil Rights ("EOCR"). Complaint resolution procedures, which include information on how to submit a complaint, are available on EOCR's website. Complaints may also be filed with external agencies, such as the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Office of Civil Rights, and the Department of Human Resource Management.
